

Youth Financial Education Grant Program Application 2024

Application Deadline: February 9, 2024

Youth Financial Education Grant Program - Exclusively for First Credit Union Members

First Credit Union believes financial education is a key component of a child's overall education. Our Youth Financial Education Grant Program recognizes and seeks to assist an educator or community organization with teaching financial education to children and teens. The grant is to be used for enriching our youth with a financial education project, curriculum or other related assistance. First Credit Union will award up to one (1) $500 grant in 2024. Complete program details including eligibility and requirements are below.

Eligibility

Grant applicants must meet all of the following requirements:

- Be a primary member of First Credit Union and in good standing when scholarship application is submitted (Please be aware volunteers, employees of First Credit Union, and their immediate family are NOT eligible to apply)
- Be an educator teaching at a private or public Arizona elementary, middle or high school OR be an employee or volunteer of an Arizona community, youth, or education organization (e.g., booster club, parent/teacher organization, etc.)
- Not received a First Credit Union Youth Financial Education Grant during the past 3 years.

Requirements

Applicants must submit all of the following:

- Completed application; and
- Supporting materials, as needed.

Process

Complete applications received on or before deadline will be considered by a panel of judges comprised of First Credit Union staff employees and executive management. Applications will be judged on spirit, content and quality of proposed activities and measures of success. Statement of need and budget will also be subject to consideration in the selection of the recipients.

Important Information

Please send completed application and corresponding materials to the address below postmarked no later than February 9, 2024. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered. All decisions are final. Recipient will be notified via email or phone by March 22, 2024. Grant funds will be deposited into recipient's First Credit Union savings account no later than May 10, 2024.
